

JOHN SNELL

For over 22 years, John Snell has been educating, counseling, and even inspiring couples and individuals to make wise financial decisions about their mortgage needs.

When working with John, you can count on the following:

- Straight talk, honest answers, and a thorough education on the mortgage process
- Availability after “bankers hours” and on weekends to fit your schedule
- Attendance at your closing to ensure everything goes smoothly
- A long list of references (good lenders have references, make sure you ask)

John was the Founder and President of Integra Mortgage, Inc. (1997-2009), and currently serves as a Senior Mortgage Consultant with VIP Mortgage Inc.

The process of obtaining a mortgage has become increasingly complex over the last two years. Whether it be harsh government regulations with unintended consequences or ever-tightening underwriting requirements, you cannot afford to trust anyone but a true professional to handle your financing needs. John is that professional.
